—Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Neal are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a nine-pound daughter, born at their home in Paris last Sunday. Mrs. Neal was before her marriage, Miss Edna Warner, of Mt. Sterling.

DEATHS.

YOUNG.

—The body of Mrs. Anna Hays Young, wife of Mr. Will Young, formerly of Bourbon county, was brought from Latonia to the Jacksonville Cemetery, in this county, Tuesday, for interment. She is survived, besides her husband, by two daughters, Mrs. Switzer and Mrs. Wellington, both of Latonia, and two brothers, John and Shawhan Hays.

FOX.

—Lonesomeness following the death of an only sister last June, is believed to have caused Robert E. Fox to commit suicide at Winchester, Wednesday, by shooting himself through the head. Mr. Fox was a bachelor, sixty-two years old, and an uncle of Mr. John Fox, Jr., the novelist, formerly of Paris. He left an estate valued at about $10,000. Before committing suicide Mr. Fox mailed a check for $200 to a Winchester undertaker, with explicit instructions as to funeral arrangements.

HANNA.

—Mrs. Sarah Ellen Hanna, widow of Jefferson Mortimer Hanna, died at her home in Lexington, Tuesday, after an illness of two weeks. Mrs. Hanna celebrated her eightieth birthday on March 20.

Mrs. Hanna was the great-granddaughter of Colonel Wm. Moore. She was a native of Bourbon county, and was the daughter of William Guthrie Patterson and Matilda Ward Moore. Funeral services were held at the family residence Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. R. T. Gillispie. The burial followed in the Lexington Cemetery. Mr. Wm. B. Woodford was one of the pall bearers.

WRIGHT.

News has been received here of the death in Nashville, Tennessee, of Mr. Will H. Wright, a relative of the Wright families of this vicinity, who went from Clark county to Nashville in 1877.

Mr. Wright was a son of the late Mr. Harry Wright, and a brother of the late Squire Wright, of Levee, Montgomery county. He was a grandson of Thomas Wright, who came to Clark county from South Carolina in the early days. He owned the farm on the Pretty Run pike, on the Bourbon county line, now owned by the heirs of the late Squire John Evans. For several years he was in charge of the Grigsby farm near Winchester, which is now owned by Judge George B. Nelson.

He is survived by his widow, two sons and three daughters. He has many relatives through this section of the country.

DOW.

—The body of Mrs. Bessie Marsh Dow, wife of Mr. Rion Dow, formerly of this city, who died at her home in Des Moines, Iowa, at a late hour Monday evening, after a protracted illness, arrived in Paris, Wednesday morning, and was at once taken to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Marsh in East Paris.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, the services being conducted by Rev. F. J. Cheek, of Danville, formerly of Paris. The burial followed in the Paris Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Ira D. Thompson, John Spears, Steele Marsh, Clark Bascom, Charles Wilmoth and Frank P. Walker.

In company with her husband, Mrs. Marsh was a guest here Christmas of relatives. A few weeks after their return to Des Moines she was taken sick. Her condition grew gradually worse, and for the past week her death was momentarily expected.

Mrs. Dow, who was in her fortieth year, as Miss Bessie Marsh, was one of the most popular young women in the city or county, having a large circle of warm friends, who have learned with genuine sorrow of her death, and who have planted deep memories of her many charming traits of character and her warm friendships made in the days of her youth, and which have never languished. She was one of those warm-hearted, impulsive women whose friendship was a thing of joy to those upon whom it was bestowed. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

Mrs. Dow was married to Mr. Rion Dow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dow, of this city, about twenty years ago, and their married life has been one of the very happiest. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Rion Dow; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Marsh; three sisters, Mrs. Dill Wheat, of Newport, Misses Janie and Catherine Marsh, of Paris; and one brother, Mr. Harry Marsh, of Paris.

RECOVERING FROM OPERATION.

Friends in this city of Mr. Sherman Stivers, former newspaper man of Paris and Lexington, will be glad to learn that he is rapidly recovering from the effects of an operation for appendicitis, performed at Waco, Texas, some time ago. Mr. Stivers has been in the South for some months in the interest of a proprietary medicine as publicity representative, and has been making good all along the line.

PRESBYTERY OF EBENEZER TO MEET IN MAYSVILLE.

The Presbytery of Ebenezer, of which the Paris church is a part, will meet in Maysville, at the First Presbyterian church next Tuesday, and will continue in session throughout Thursday. Some of the most prominent members of the Presbyterian denomination in this section of the State will be in attendance, and representatives from the various churches within this territory will be in Maysville to attend the sessions.

The Maysville hotels have made special rates for the entertainment of the visitors, but as many as possible will be entertained in homes of members of the Maysville congregation. The hospitality of the church will be tested to provide suitable entertainment for the large number who are expected to attend the Presbytery sessions.

On Wednesday and Thursday the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of the Presbytery will be in session. Their meeting will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church, opposite the Presbyterian church, through the courtesy of the Methodist pastor and people.

Matters of very important business are to come before the Presbytery at this meeting and on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings there will be public meetings held in the Presbyterian church, to which the public in general is invited. Some of the strongest men in the Presbytery will deliver addresses. The Presbyterian people are invited to attend the meetings both day and night.
